

Art Rotterdam 2021: Rescheduled from February to July

Almicheal Fraay

Art Rotterdam will be taking place this year during the summer from Thursday 1 July to Sunday 4 July 2021. The new date is the result of an extension of lockdown by three weeks, which means that cultural institutions will not reopen until 10 February at the earliest. Art Rotterdam was originally scheduled for 4-7 February 2021.

Fons Hof, Director of Art Rotterdam, comments, "The twenty-second edition of Art Rotterdam will be a summer edition. The participating galleries will still be part of the event and are enthusiastic about the postponement until the summer. The Prospects Exhibition - Mondriaan Fund Shows Talent will also be rescheduled to this date. All food service will be conducted on the outdoor grounds and visitors will have the unique opportunity to experience the iconic Van Nelly Factory and Art Rotterdam in a summer atmosphere."

Due to the extension of lockdown, the Rotterdam Art Week is also being postponed until the summer and will now be held from 30 June to 4 July 2021. Art Rotterdam will then too be the heart of this festival dedicated to art, design and architecture enthusiasts. This summer, the city's art climate will be strengthened and revived with special openings, exhibitions in museums and art institutions, lectures, guided tours, debates, pop-up shows and various fairs.
