

New Art Section

The New Art Section, section for emerging artists, will be given a new impetus this 24th edition. Situated right next to the entrance, in the daylight-filled atmospheric coffee factory, it defines the visitor's first impression. With sixteen innovative presentations, this section claims a central place in the attention of collectors and art professionals. Adjacent are two restaurants accessible from the entrance area.

Fons Hof, Art Rotterdam director: 'With the central placement of the New Art Section, we emphasise Art Rotterdam's basic principles: discovering new art and encouraging young talent. For many artists, Art Rotterdam means the start of their careers'.
